

Instructions for San Francisco Paid Parental Leave Form

If you are eligible for California Paid Family Leave benefits for new child bonding and you work in San Francisco, you may also be eligible for “Supplemental Compensation” from your employer. You must complete the Paid Parental Leave Form to receive Supplemental Compensation for new child bonding from your employer.

If you have only one employer, complete Sections 1, 2, and 3, and submit the form to your employer.

If you have more than one employer, you must provide a completed form to each employer. For each employer, complete Sections 1, 2, 3, and 4, sign in both Section 3 and Section 4.

Section 1 Instructions:

Fill out your name and address in the first line and the name of the employer in the second line.

Section 2 Instructions:

Your employer needs to know the amount of your weekly California Paid Family Leave benefits for bonding with a new child. The best way to provide your employer with this information is to check both boxes, meaning:

1. You are submitting a copy of your “Notice of Computation” to your employer. You should receive the Notice of Computation (DE429D) in the mail shortly after submitting your EDD Claim Form. and also
2. When you applied for California Paid Family Leave, you checked the box on the form granting EDD permission to disclose your benefit amount to your employer.

Note: your employer may also require you to submit your EDD “Notice of Payment,” which EDD will send you when the first payment is made.

Section 3 Instructions:

Read the reimbursement agreement, fill in your name in the blank, then sign your name and enter the date in the Employee Signature blank. You should also have your supervisor or HR representative sign and date the agreement in the Employer Signature blank.

If you have only one employer, then the form is complete.

If you have more than one employer, complete Section 4.

Section 4 Instructions: If you have more than one employer, the San Francisco law requires you to provide “information pertaining to wages received from all employers” to each of your employers. In filling out this section, fill in wages from all employers, including the employer to whom you are submitting the form. Do not include income earned as an independent contractor.

There are two options for gathering information and completing Section 4 of the form.

Option A. Ask each of your employers for your Normal Gross Weekly Wages over the past three months or twelve weeks and enter the number in the column for each employer. If you have more than three employers, attach an additional page with information from other employers as needed. If you receive tips at any of these jobs, ask your employer for the average all reported tips in the designated column. Please see the example below.

Employer	Normal Gross Weekly Wage	Average Weekly Tips
1 GSA BAKERY	500
2 CON COFFEE	600	203

Option B. Fill out your information on your earnings from all employers over the past 3 months or 12 weeks based on your pay stubs or other records. Enter the date and pre-tax earnings for each pay period. You should include the reported tips from each employer in the column titled “Tips” if you receive reported tips at any of these jobs. Do not include pay periods where you were on unpaid or partially paid leave. For example, if you were on pregnancy disability leave and were only receiving partial pay, do not include those amounts.

Note that your employer may request proof of wages from other employers.

Below is an example of an employee who has one employer that pays the same wages for each bi-weekly pay period and one employer with fluctuating wages where the employee also receives tips.
